The Louisiana State Civil Service Commission will soon choose a new leader of the Department of State Civil Service. Article X of the Louisiana Constitution charges the State Civil Service Commission with selecting the Civil Service Director.

The Civil Service Director administers a comprehensive merit-based personnel management program whose policies are founded upon the principles of equal pay for equal work, equal opportunity, ability based employment and promotion, and freedom from political influence.

The former SCS Director, Shannon Templet, took a new position at the Louisiana House of Representatives. Templet served as SCS Director for the past six years.

Candidates must have a baccalaureate degree plus extensive administrative level experience in human resources in a large organization. Additional details about this vacancy are available via the LA Careers System, which can be found at www.jobs.louisiana.gov.

Online applications will be accepted via the LA Careers System through Monday, October 26, 2015. Questions should be directed to Allen Reynolds, Consultant, at (225) 342-8272.

State Civil Service Mission:

To provide human resource services and programs that enable state government to attract, develop and retain a productive and diverse workforce that excels in delivering quality services to the citizens of Louisiana.
